

Area shifts into gear for Labor Day holiday

BY TRACI BONNEY

It will be hard to decide whether to move into high gear or slow down this Labor Day weekend.

Many local activities are scheduled for the holiday, including a fireworks show Sunday, Sept. 2, at Garfield Ladner Memorial Pier in Waveland, and The Reef Restaurant's second annual Labor Day water extravaganza.

The fireworks display, sponsored by the Waveland Civic Association in cooperation with the City of Bay St. Louis, the City of Waveland and the Hancock County Board of Supervisors, will begin at 8:30 p.m.

The Reef Restaurant's Labor Day water fest, which will benefit the Hancock County Firefighters Association, is being held Monday, Sept. 3, from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. at the restaurant on Hwy. 603 and the Jourdan River.

Events for the extravaganza include pirogue races, anything-that-floats-but-a-boat race, inner tube race, jet ski competition, water ski competition, greased watermelon race, Miss Reef swimsuit competition, men's wet t-shirt contest and a cardboard boat regatta.

The highlight of the extravaganza will be a tug-a-war challenge between the Hancock County Firefighters Association and the Hancock County Lawmen's Association.

In addition to the events, the festival will feature live bands, plenty of picnic-style food, craft booths, a space walk for the kids and a fireworks display after dark.

Donation to attend the festival will be $2 for adults and $1 for children.

For those who don't want to brave the possible heat of the day, the Muscular Dystrophy Association will be broadcasting its 25th annual Labor Day Telethon from 10 p.m. Sunday, Sept. 2, to 6 p.m. Monday, Sept. 3, on Fox affiliate channels 25 and 38. Those wishing to make pledges will be able to call the local pledge office, located at Charlie Henderson Ford, at 467-9005 or 467-9006.

And of course, for all those recreational shoppers and bargain hunters, most area stores will be holding Labor Day sales.

While area residents are enjoying the activities of the holiday, they will find that the Bay St. Louis and Waveland city halls, the Hancock County courthouse, area banks and local post offices are closed.

Other closures include local branches of the public library and the Sea Coast Echo office.

According to spokespeople for Bay St. Louis and Waveland, garbage pickup for the two cities will continue as normally scheduled.

Travelers on state and interstate highways are reminded that state troopers will be patrolling Mississippi's roads.

Beefed-up holiday patrols will be cruising the asphalt until midnight Monday.

This month the patrol is doubly motivated to enforce the speed limit—to promote safety on the roads and to keep $14 million of federal funds from being withheld.

The state will lose federal funds for highway construction if 50 percent of the drivers travel at speeds in excess of 55 miles per hour on highways

Job Services office closes door

BY TRACI BONNEY

The Bay St. Louis office of the Mississippi State Job Service closed its door Friday, as did many employment offices across the state, in a widespread cutback.

Those planning to use the state employment service to find a job in Hancock County will now have to travel to the Gulfport office, where application files that were being handled in the local office have been sent.

Ann Ladner, who was director of the office, said some positive things came of the closure. She commented that the threat of the office's closing prompted a show of support among local political entities and resulted in letters from the mayor of Bay St. Louis and the members of the county board of supervisors.

The board also voted Friday to pass a resolution re-stating its support for the services provided by the office. The resolution will be sent to Gov. Ray Mabus, as were the letters.

Ladner said at the board meeting that she heard some federal money has been allocated for the re-opening of some offices, possibly up to 16, but the process of directing the funds and deciding which offices will re-open may take some six months.

She said the letters and resolutions may add ammunition to efforts at re-opening the local Job Service office.

In a telephone interview earlier in the week, Ladner was optimistic as she said, "I think the office will come back."

NASA's Miller happy with ASRM meetings

BY TRACI BONNEY

Local NASA officials are pleased with the outcome of recently held public meetings to discuss the pros, cons, facts and fears concerning testing of the controversial Advanced Solid Rocket Motor.

ASRM Project Manager Lon Miller said, "Personally, I think we did what we set out to do."

He added that feedback received from officials at the National Aeronautics and Space Administration's headquarters has been positive so far.

"This is a first for NASA, going public with its view of a project. These meetings may set a pattern for NASA."

Miller commented that he was pleased with the turnout for the four meetings held last week throughout the area, and he thought there good questions were raised and helpful input was given.

The next step for NASA will come later in the fall, after the State Board of Pollution Control has processed the agency's application for a permit to test the ASRM at John C. Stennis Space Center. Miller said the pollution control board will be holding a public meeting in Jackson.

"I think some of the same concerns will be raised, and some of the same people will be there."

He also said he thinks that those with deep, genuine concerns to know more about how this issue will affect them will have their questions answered.

"I feel we have come a long way in our interactions with the public," he concluded.

County gains revenues in delinquent tax sales

BY TRACI BONNEY

Hancock County Tax Assessor/Collector Edward D. Murtagh Jr. had good news and bad news for the county Board of Supervisors at its Friday meeting.

Murtagh told the board that $371,000 in property was sold at the recent county delinquent realty tax sale. However, he added, only $71,000 of that was sold to individuals, while the other $300,000 went to the state.

According to Murtagh, this means that the county collected only $71,000 of the money from the sales. The revenues from the property that went to the state cannot be collected until the property is redeemed, he explained.

If the property is not redeemed it reverts to the state, which can dispose of it in any manner the state sees fit.

Murtagh said he has tried for the past three years to have such property go to the county, which could then swap or auction it off and keep the revenues gained, but the idea "hasn't flown."

Board members said they would support his ideas on the matter, as they had in the past.

A surplus mortuary refrigerator owned by Hancock County is still on ice, at least until the one bid received on it is reviewed and either accepted or rejected.

The board opened and took under advisement a bid from Riemann Funeral Home for the refrigerator, which was used by the Hancock County Sheriff's Department until local funeral homes began purchasing their own.

The county had advertised for bids on the unit earlier in the summer, but received none. The second effort at soliciting bids brought only the one from Riemann.

The board also took under advisement bids for tax mailing envelopes and asphalt.

Delbert Seay of the Hancock County Sheriff's Department asked the board to advertise for a new or used van to replace one destroyed by fire, to buy two 1991 Ford Crown Victorias for the department and to advertise for bids on equipment

Stormy weather

Hail and wind add to rain damage

BY JACQUI COCHRAN

High winds and heavy rains battered and bruised their way through Bay St. Louis Thursday as a storm approached the area near 6 p.m. from the southwest, bringing with it hail, lightning and destruction.

High-power lines which fell and were exposed at Bay Royale Apartments presented the most immediate danger, said Bay St.

Louis Fire Chief Andrew Lizana.

A warehouse at West Building Materials on DeMontluzin Avenue and Breath's Boats and Motors on Highway 90 both sustained damage to their roofs when furious winds ripped back the metal sheeting.

Coast Lane Motors on Hwy. 90 lost a showcase window when it was sucked out by the strong winds, according to Harmon Turan.

Businesses were not alone in sustaining storm damage. Wesley McFarland on Beach Boulevard reported that a live oak tree, estimated to be 486 years old, toppled in his yard.

Live oaks weren't the only trees devastated by the severe weather. Susan Waddell of Waveland lost a 30 year old water oak she had nurtured from a sapling to a bolt of lightning.

"You can replace an appliance. How can you replace a tree?" she asked sadly.

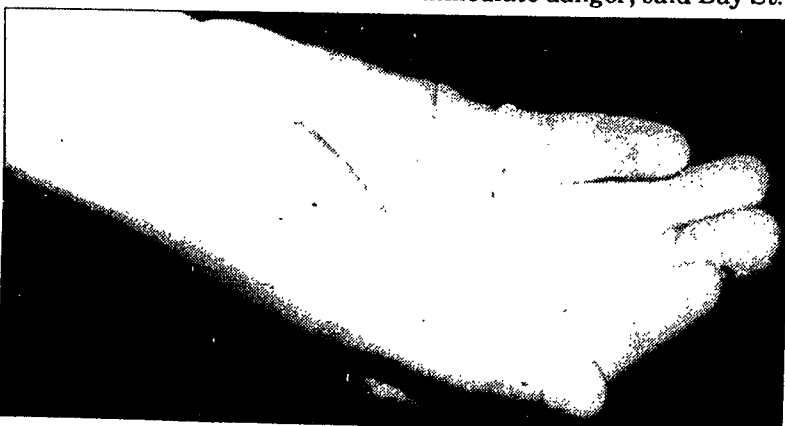

While the rains soaked the entire area, they did not help the Waveland Fire Department in containing a wood fire northeast of Hwys. 90 and 603 which was started by burning trash when the winds came up and literally "blew it out of proportion," reported Chief David Garcia, who said the fire burned nearly four acres.

Other features of the storm included marble-sized hail, which covered the ground in downtown Bay St. Louis, Cedar Point and other areas and gave the appearance of snow covering the ground for a short time.

Reflections

On Life

By Father Jerome
LeDoux, SVD

Striving for anonymity

Alcoholics Anonymous is exactly what it says it is: a fellowship of women and men who have named and admitted their affliction of alcoholic addiction and who support each other unconditionally to stay healthily sober through cooperation with a Higher Power.

The greatest thing we can say about Alcoholics Anonymous is that it works, seemingly better than any other system devised by humans to combat addiction—any addiction. In fact, it works so well that it almost seems divinely inspired.

Its now legendary Twelve Steps, a strikingly simple yet amazingly profound linchpin, move swiftly from open admission of a most personal problem with alcohol to the embrace of a Higher Power which alone can rescue one from the clutches of addiction.

Anonymity is the other main ingredient which at first protests the addict from outside prying and ridicule, then later shields him/her from the headiness—another form of addiction—of going forth to speak and being a star of sorts in the public eye. The introduction always remains: "I'm Joe/ Jane. I'm an alcoholic."

This has thoroughly fascinating analogies everywhere else in human relationships. As a matter of fact, the analogy is usually so tight that it is downright spooky.

It reaches a point where an alcoholic comes off as more fortunate than the non-addicts who are not forced to pursue the blessings of anonymity and creature dependence on a Higher Power which transcends creature weaknesses.

Take the raw rookie in any spectator sport as one of the most obvious analogies. As long as he can sneak in behind the superstars, he can pole his prodigious homers, slam his thunderous dunks, make his exciting touchdowns or crush his lightning aces without a second thought, because he is operating under the easy, pressureless cloak of anonymity.

Enter the media, the limelight and the demise of innocence. It would literally tire you to attempt to enumerate the athletes who have folded temporarily and sometimes permanently under the glare of publicity and encroaching fame.

The exceptions are so rare that it is far easier to throw in an occasional name like Steffi Graf or Wayne Gretzky who was not blown away by fanfare.

"Stay within yourself. Don't try to play over your head," athletes are continually warned. Yet, that is exactly what tends to happen once the cover of anonymity is blown.

As a nervous compensation for inner pressures of their own making, athletes forget their limitations as creatures and begin to press—and fail.

What happens to athletes likewise happens to superstars in the entertainment business, even though they appear to thrive on the spotlights.

Sammy Davis Jr. generally considered the greatest all-around entertainer of them all, admitted openly in an interview shortly before his decline in health that he was driven relentlessly by the fear that he was not worthy of all the attention which he was receiving from his audiences.

Little did he realize how powerful a statement he was making on his—and our—creaturehood. It is no accident that many other luminaries such as Richard Burton and Judy Garland were driven by the same forces. Likewise, it is not coincidental that they could have benefited greatly from Alcoholics Anonymous.

This is not so much a pitch for Alcoholics Anonymous as it is for what that fellowship tells us: Because of our creature limitations and defects, it is not our name but that of the Higher Power which should go on the marquees and in the spotlights.

The prophets have come

LOOKING INSIDE

By Pastor Bob Guidry, Jr.

When someone mentions the word "prophet" what do you think about?

Do you think about some of the great men of old, or maybe some of the modern-day doom-and-gloom psychics?

Maybe you think prophets have been done away with by God, or that they never really had any valid claims to begin with.

Well, once again I ask you to know why you believe what you believe.

Time and time again, the Bible says that God sent prophets to tell the people of God's plan.

If we are going to make an assumption about prophets, then we should have proof of why we believe it.

According to the Bible, the great prophets of old were common men, men just like us. They were men that worked hard for a living and men that had a heart for God.

These men were called out by God to speak the things God had to say.

God has always been a God that speaks, and the Bible says in Malachi 3:6, "For I am the Lord, I change not."

God still speaks today through the mouths of his servants the prophets. In fact, God says in Amos 3:7, "The Lord God will do nothing but he revealeth his secret unto his servants the prophets."

Today God is restoring the prophets to the land to speak the revelation knowledge of God.

God has many things in his plan that he wants to reveal to the body of Christ, and he is speaking them today through his prophets.

God promised that the prophets would come again before he would return for the church. In Malachi 4:5 God says, "Behold, I will send you Elijah the prophet before the great and dreadful day of the Lord."

The closing of the age is upon us and God has sent the prophets to speak his words.

Come and hear what the prophets have to say.

Hancock Medical Center Kicks Off Prostate Awareness Week

The men who get prostate cancer this year could fill this stadium. Twice.

This year, 106,000 American men will get prostate cancer. Enough to fill Three Rivers Stadium twice.

All men age 40 and over are at risk. One out of every 11 men will get prostate cancer. About 30,000 will die this year alone. Yet many men won't know they have prostate cancer because it can occur and spread without symptoms.

The Good News

Prostate cancer can be cured if caught early. Even during its later stages, the disease can be effectively treated. The ROCKY BLEIER, former running back for the Pittsburgh Steelers, is a prostate cancer survivor.

National Cancer Institute recommends an annual prostate exam for all men age 40 and over. A doctor can do the simple test in about one minute.

Play it safe. Get an exam and ask your doctor about prostate cancer because it might hit someone you know. Like you. Prostate Cancer Awareness Week September 16-23, 1990 is Prostate Cancer Awareness Week. Hospitals around the country are offering free prostate exams to men age 40 and over. At 6 p.m. this evening the 1990 Jerry Lewis Muscular Dystrophy telethon will get underway.

Jerry Lewis and volunteers across America will be raising funds to use in research and treatment of muscular dystrophy.

This will be the 14th year the Waveland Civic Association will be sponsoring the telethon, and Louis Smolensky will serve as chairman.

Charles Henderson Ford of Charlie Henderson Ford has graciously donated the use of his car dealership's facilities as headquarters for the telethon.

Smolensky said there are six telephone lines, and a person has to dial only one telephone number to make a pledge. The number is 467-9005 or Gulfport area 864-3837.

Cooperation from the community has been tremendous this year as in previous years, Smolensky reports.

Many merchants have donated different items to benefit the fundraiser, and everything is really appreciated.

The telethons will run from 6 p.m. today through 6 p.m. tomorrow, (Labor Day).

WNOJ-Fox 25, Channel 25 and 38 will carry the telethon.

Smolensky said the telethon can use volunteers to make phone calls to solicit donations, as he still has several slots open due to the large number of telephones the group will be using this year at Charlie's.

Last year some $16,253 was raised in Hancock and West Harrison County for the very worthy cause, and a goal of $20,000 is being sought this year.

If you would like to donate a little time to the telethon, give Louie a call at 467-9005 or drop by Charlie's Ford which is located on Highway 90 at the Waveland-Bay St. Louis line.

Do not forget to call and make your pledge. I will be making mine.

Arrangements have been made once again to accept major credit card pledges, Jay Lagasse, Civic Association president, reports.

On Sunday night (tonight), the Waveland Civic Association in cooperation with the Hancock County Board of Supervisors and cities of Waveland and Bay St. Louis will present the annual fireworks display.

Fireworks are scheduled for 8:30 p.m. at the Garfield Ladner Memorial Fishing Pier with the Waveland Fire Department in charge.

Jay, Lagasse, association president, reports there will be a large display of fireworks this year.

I am hoping there will be a large turnout of folks along the beach watching the fireworks display.

Rotarians across the world realize the importance of attending meetings even when they are away from home.

I have myself "made up" meetings when I have been away from home.

As some of you know, the Diamondhead Rotary Club, sponsored by the Bay St. Louis Rotary Club, is in its first year.

Just a week ago Rotary sign was placed at Diamondhead just off the Interstate Highway and this past Thursday the club had two visitors and their spouses from Bourges, France.

Jim Williams, club secretary reports the visitors were both past presidents of the Bourges club and had pulled off the highway to purchase gas when they spotted the Rotary sign. They were on their way to New Orleans and "made up" Rotary at the Diamondhead club which meets at the Quality Inn each Thursday.

Williams reports the club has had several visitors already but none from as far away as central France.

THE PEOPLE'S BUSINESS

From the Mississippi Economic Council

M/E/C

An invitation to citizen participation in government

Every citizen should have a personal goal greater participation in affairs of state. That participation can come in a variety of ways, from offering as a candidate to candidate support, discussion of issues, and expression of thought and ideas to governmental leaders.

The Mississippi Economic Council is offering an incentive for such participation.

The Council has created a "Legislative Briefing Center" and it is inviting members of local chambers of commerce, other business groups, and interested citizens to make full use of the Center.

The Center will invite groups to come in for legislative briefings, it will provide information on issues of interest to business and civic groups, and it will help to arrange meetings of citizen groups and governmental officials where appropriate.

The mission of the Legislative Briefing Center, housed in the Council offices in Jackson, will be to encourage greater citizen participation in government.

Local chambers of commerce and other groups will want to take advantage of the services being offered in the briefing center.

The controversy of gas price gouging

As our young military men and women take their positions in Saudi Arabia to deter the aggression of Iraqi madman Saddam Hussein, the controversy continues to swirl around the rapid rise of gasoline prices.

Crude oil prices rose again on Thursday, Aug. 23, and prices for gasoline, heating oil and other fuels surged along with them. Oil analysts conclude these peaks guarantee a very expensive winter for consumers.

The Energy Department reported that inventories of oil and fuels increased last week despite the cutoff of shipments from Iraq and Kuwait. But many say the rising prices reflect a widespread belief that shortages are likely by October when current stocks have been used.

Gasoline prices are rising even faster than crude oil prices. Before the week of August 19, unleaded gasoline had never traded for more than $1 a gallon on the New York exchange.

With those prices continuing upward, the Justice Department is intensifying its investigation into possible price collusion by the oil companies. The top executives of the oil companies are being called in to explain the reasons for the sharp increases in gasoline prices that followed the Aug. 2 Iraqi invasion of Kuwait.

Among the areas the Justice Department is looking into are allegations by independent petroleum marketers that refiners were providing gasoline to company-owned filling stations at prices substantially lower than what they were charging the independents.

There definitely are circumstances in Mississippi to support such an inquiry. In Pascagoula an oil company-owned station is selling gas for $1.07 a gallon, while an independent-owned station at the other end of town served by the same company is charging $1.21 per gallon.

I spent about an hour this past week with a distributor in Picayune. He pulled out his invoices to document the rising costs he was being charged. Within three days following Aug. 2, the price per gallon of gasoline charged to him was up 15 cents. By Aug. 23, it was up by 21 cents.

Now, I understand the concept of supply and demand and the fact that prices go up when supply is down, but I'm just not certain that has always been the case in this situation. As I have said previously, there is no doubt that the Congress is going to continue to examine this situation and may consider some type of action that would deter oil companies from taking excess profits in as short a period of time as occurred the first week in August.

It is clear that this pricing situation has served to wake up America from its stupor over its energy needs. We are almost as dependent on foreign oil today as we were during the 1970s.

We must look at a national energy policy which will encompass incentives for conservation, the encouragement of domestic oil production, incentives for natural gas exploration, go-aheads for nuclear power production, and offshore oil drilling.

In the short term however, the Justice Department and the Congress should vigorously pursue the truth behind the premature rise in gasoline prices that first week in August.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Church's tax exempt status is center of discussion

Dear Editor:

In your newspaper's report (Sunday, Aug. 26) concerning the property tax status of the Notre Dame de Le Mar complex, Mr. Edward Murtagh is reported as questioning the legal right of the Church to operate such a complex. The legal right of the Church is not in question at all in this matter.

As a matter of fact, the Church has a clear responsibility to be about such charitable works.

The discussion is about whether such a charitable work is legally eligible for tax exempt status and whether local government will cooperate in supporting such a tax exempt status.

Bob Hubbard seeks reelection as Waveland Ward 2 alderman

BOB HUBBARD

Waveland Ward Two Alderman Robert G. (Bob) Hubbard III has announced his candidacy for a third term in the November 6 city election.

A lifelong resident of Waveland, Hubbard is a self-employed professional photographer.

He is a graduate of St. Stanislaus High School, Pearl River Community College and the University of Southern Mississippi.

A member of Our Lady of the Gulf Catholic Church, Hubbard is a lector, commentator and Eucharistic minister. He has been active in Knights of Columbus since 1963, serving in many elected offices, including Grand Knight of Pere le Duc Council 1522.

He is former District Deputy of District 7, State Council Knights of Columbus and is one of 75 members of the Knights V.I.P. Club.

Civic involvement includes membership in the Waveland Civic Association, St. Stanislaus Sideline Club, Hancock County Library System, Hancock County Chamber of Commerce, Exchange Club, Rotary Club.

St. Vincent de Paul Society, Hancock County Historical Society, Mississippi Municipal Association, Order of the Alhambra and Mississippi Farm Bureau.

He is active in the United Way of Hancock County and is a former director of Rotary Club and the chamber.

Hubbard was King Triton IX in 1983, and was a charter member of the men's carnival organization. He earned Eagle Palm Scout rank in Boy Scouts.

He is a member of Professional Photographers of America, Southeastern Professional Photographers Association and Professional Photographers of Mississippi-Alabama.

"If elected, I will strive to provide the people of Waveland with the same honest, progressive government to which they are accustomed."

"I am opposed to any tax increases. Waveland is a city on the move. It is getting larger all the time."

"Once people come here, they want to come back," he said.

Reservists have right to return to old jobs

Military reservists called to active duty have the right to return to their old jobs if they meet certain requirements, a U.S. Labor Department official said.

There are four requirements contained in the Veterans' Re-employment Rights (VRR) law, according to Thomas E. Collins III, assistant secretary of labor for veterans employment and training. Returning reservists must:

- have held an "other than temporary" civilian job (but not necessarily a "permanent" job),
- leave the civilian job to go on active duty, receive a certificate evidencing satisfactory service,

—apply for re-employment with the pre-service employer within 31 days of discharge.

"A person meeting these requirements is entitled to their pre-service position or an equivalent job," Collins said.

"The returning serviceman or woman does not get back onto the seniority ladder where he or she left it but at the point that would have been reached without the interruption for military service."

The VRR law, in effect since 1940, applies to those who leave their jobs for voluntary or involuntary military service in war or peace, Collins said.

The Veterans' Employment and Training Service (VETS) in the Labor Department assists reservists and National Guard members as well as others who leave military service in enforcing their re-employment rights.

"An employer or employee having questions about the VRR law should call the Mississippi Veterans' Employment and Training Service at 961-7588 or call the VETS National Office at 202-523-8611."

Those who leave civilian jobs for active duty are not required to request a leave of absence or even to notify employers that military service is the reason for leaving, although Collins encourages anyone called to active duty to give the employer as much information as possible.

Different rules apply to reservists and National Guard members called to duty for training. They must request a leave of absence. However, this is really just a notice, not a request, because employers cannot deny it.

(radios, racks, etc.) for the two cars. The board assented to all three requests.

In addition, the board authorized the renewal of a contract between the sheriff's department and NASA for the department to patrol the buffer zone of the John C. Stennis Space Center.

Ann Ladner of the local Mis-issippi Job Service Office (which closed Friday) asked the board to draft a resolution in support of the office's continued operation, and to send the resolution to Gov. Ray Mabus. Board president Ronald Cuevas said the board would be glad to do so.

Antonio Ramirez, a resident of Avenue B and Third Street off Hwy. 603, appeared before the board and alleged that there were several problems with road maintenance and repair, and drainage ditch construction and maintenance, in his area. In response, the board president asked that Road Superintendent Sam Cuevas meet with Ramirez to discuss the problems and possible solutions to them.

where the speed limit is 55.

In Mississippi, the speed limit is 55 mph or less except on rural sections of the interstate highways I-55, I-59, I-20 and I-10.

Assistant Mississippi Highway Patrol chief, Lt. Col. Billie T. Hughes, said, "Each of the nine Highway Patrol districts will have stepped up manpower through federally sponsored 'call back' speed enforcement details."

In addition to the ground units, troopers flying air surveillance aircraft will identify speeding vehicles through the time-distance principle of detection.

Identifying speeding vehicles from aircraft involves clocking the number of seconds it takes a vehicle to travel between measured points on the highway. The points are airplane silhouettes painted on specific highways.

There are more than 40 sites across Mississippi where troopers can detect speeding motorists from the aircraft.

"Approximately 584 additional manhours will be worked by officers who ordinarily would be off-duty. The salaries of these extra officers as well as the fuel for the aircraft that will be flown during the Labor Day holiday are being paid by federal funds," Hughes said.

Hawks open season with big win

Special to the Echo
BY BELINDA LILES

Hancock High School opened its 1990 football season with a 32-6 victory over archrival d'Iberville Warriors in the District VIII 4-A Division.

Coach Irvin Favre said, "We played well, and I am pleased with the team's performance. I realize we still have to get sharper with our execution and watch our penalties."

Hancock's opening fumble in the first few seconds of the game was no indication of how the Hawks would play.

The Warriors gained control of the fumble and retained possession until Radley Ladner "stuck" d'Iberville running back, Joey Bosarge, causing a fumble. Brodie Forrest covered the ball for the Hawks.

A few plays later, Hawk quarterback Regan Ladner carried the ball off an option down to the 5-yard line. Terrance Goff tried to punch it in and managed to gain 2 yards. Two plays later, the Hawks hit pay dirt as Goff scored the first touchdown of the night.

The PAT was no good, giving the Hawks a lead of 6-0.

After Hancock kicked off and possession was changed, Hawk quarterback Ladner hit defensive back Lance Salvos for a d'Iberville interception on the Warrior 1-yard line. Two plays later found Richard Simmons dragging down Warrior quarterback Conrad Hamel in the end zone for a safety, giving an 8-0 edge.

d'Iberville's free kick was a short one with the Hawks returning it to the Warrior 39-yard line. After several carries, the Hawks offense finally was rewarded with a second touchdown, also carried by Goff.

The PAT was missed, giving Hancock a 14-0 lead in the second quarter.

The following Hawk kickoff spelled disaster for the Warriors as linebacker Bobby Doyle stripped the ball from the return man, causing a fumble which he picked up and ran in for his first touchdown.

A try for a two-point conversion failed as the pass was incomplete, leaving the score 20-0 with 5:51 remaining in the first half.

The Warriors scored their only touchdown of the evening when Joey Bosarge found an opening in the Hawks defensive line and busted loose for a 75-yard race for the end zone. The PAT was wide to the left.

The Warrior score cut the Hawk lead to 20-6.

After the d'Iberville kickoff, the Hawks drove the distance of the field looking for another score before the half. With the efforts of Jerone Vince, who carried the ball for some long distance gains while running wide and dodging Warriors, Goff topped off the drive with a 1-yard plunge to score his third touchdown of the night.

The Hawks went into the halftime break with a 26-6 lead.

Third quarter action saw swaps of the ball with neither team showing any punch.

Late in the third quarter the Hawks received a punt and put a drive together that appeared to have been stalled by an illegal forward pass, putting the Hawks in a third and 12 situation.

On the next play Ladner connected with Doyle for 18 yards and a first down.

Jeff Favre moved the ball to the 4, then Ladner struck Doyle in the end zone for the final score of the game, giving the Hawks a 32-6 lead.

In the fourth quarter with a comfortable lead, Coach Irvin Favre cleared the bench, giving all the young Hawks some action.

Assistant coach Tim Favre commented at the end of game, "Overall the defense played a good game. Bobby Doyle made four tackles, one interception and recovered one fumble for a TD. David King added three tackles."

"d'Iberville really only had two long plays in the entire game, one for TD, and the other a long pass late in the game, these accounted for three-quarters of their total yardage," Favre added.

As the game ended, Hancock wrapped up 18 to the Warrior's 4; rushing yardage 263-102; and passing yardage 66-72.

Next Friday Hancock will entertain Pearl River Central at Hawk Stadium.

substituted for Watts.

The good news for the Pirates was in their kicking game. Although chances were lost for extra points in overtime, punter Samuel Bishop showed that he could do the job when he kicked on fourth down several times for long yards. In addition, #32 Eldon Daniels kicked a field goal in the third overtime of the game.

It was in overtime that the scoring began. The Rocks won the toss and elected to play defense as the Pirates lined up on the 10-yard line. On the first play, Watts ran the ball in for a touchdown.

The attempt for the extra point failed.

Undaunted, St. Stanislaus scored a TD on the second play when #40 Tate Thriffley charged across the goal line.

The Rocks also missed their PAT attempt.

The second overtime found the Pirates on the 25-yard line instead of the 10 due to a penalty. Thanks to a completed pass to Jenkins, the Pirates ended up on the 13-yard line. A run by Jenkins put the score at 12-6.

The Rocks were determined to gather no moss. Ken Booker, #13, made a touchdown in short order, but again the opportunity to win was lost when the PAT kick missed its mark.

In the third overtime, Watts found himself still under heavy pressure from the Rock linemen, but Daniels kicked a field goal to bring the score to 15-12.

However, the Rock-A-Chaws were not to be denied. On the third down, Booker again took the ball in for a TD, giving his team an 18-15 victory over the Pirates.

Next Friday, St. Stanislaus will host Bay High's Tigers, while Pass Christian will journey to an away game with North Forrest.

Rocks drop Pirates in triple overtime

Special to the Echo
BY PATRICK MCKEE

The St. Stanislaus Rock-A-Chaws defeated the Pass Christian Pirates 18-15 in the third overtime of the teams' 1990 season opener after both teams were unable to score during the regular 60-minute game.

Missed opportunities were the name of the game for both teams. Shaky passing games and an inability to score when close to the end zone plagued both the Rocks and the Pirates.

Fumbles with 5:33 and 1:27 to go in the third quarter hurt the Rocks' chance to score. Another fumble, made on the Pirates' 22-yard line halfway through the fourth quarter, again frustrated the Rocks' chance to put six points on the scoreboard.

The Pirates, while successful as disrupting Rock-A-Chaw drives, were ineffective in their passing game. Quarterback Tracey Watts found himself under heavy pressure from Rock linemen.

He managed, however, to keep his composure while under constant attack and completed some passes to #44 Ryan "Boo" Jenkins for some crucial yardage.

The Pirates were hurt by penalties in the third and fourth quarters. In the second overtime of the game the team received a 15-yard penalty but managed to grab six points on a run by Jenkins.

St. Stanislaus quarterback Bill Dreher, like Pirate QB Watts, had trouble completing many passes, but he too showed great composure when pressed by the Pirate linemen. Dreher also proved that he was not afraid to run the ball when the occasion arose.

Both Watts and Dreher played the whole game, except for a brief switch in the fourth quarter when #1 Burnell Dedeaux substituted for Watts.

The good news for the Pirates was in their kicking game. Although chances were lost for extra points in overtime, punter Samuel Bishop showed that he could do the job when he kicked on fourth down several times for long yards. In addition, #32 Eldon Daniels kicked a field goal in the third overtime of the game.

Rebels edge Tigers in opener

THE SEA COAST ECHO—SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 2, 1990-7A

Special to the Echo

In a hard-fought battle before a near-sellout crowd at Tiger Stadium, Bay High lost their 1990 season opener to the Pearl River, La., Rebels 20-14.

New head coach Rocky Gaudin's Tigers played tough ball throughout the night and were in contention until the final minutes.

The Tigers won the toss, and Jason Loiacano kicked off. The Rebels took the kick at their own 20-yard line and returned it to their 45. A clipping penalty sent the ball back to the Rebel 23.

On the second play from scrimmage, with the ball at the Rebel 30 and 11:00 remaining in the first quarter, 180-pound sophomore running back Ronald Abrams circled left end and sprinted 70 yards for a Rebel touchdown.

After an exchange of fumbles and punts, the Tigers took possession of the ball on their own 38. A penalty for unsportsmanlike conduct moved the ball to the Rebel 46. Loiacano swept left end for a 3-yard gain to the Rebel 43 to end the first quarter.

In the second quarter, Tiger quarterback Charlie Mitchell completed a pass to senior split end Thomas Brink to the Rebel 35. Senior fullback Scott Rogers then crashed the Rebel line on the next two plays for 5 and 7 yards to move the ball to the 23-yard line.

After a 5-yard penalty for delay of game, it was Loiacano's turn. The junior running back carried for 5 and 11 yards on the next two plays to place the ball on the 12-yard line. Rogers took the ball to the 3-yard line, and on the next play, with 8:27 left in the first half, Loiacano danced into the end zone for a Tiger TD.

The Tigers went for two points and made it, but an illegal motion penalty called the play back.

On the next play Mitchell completed a pass, but the referee ruled the receiver out of the end zone.

The Rebels took the kickoff that followed at their own 10 and returned to their 30-yard line.

They drove to the Tiger 30 and once again, with 3:22 remaining in the first half, Ronald Abrams ran wide to the left and outraced the Tiger defenders to the goal line for a second Rebel touchdown.

The Rebels' attempt at a two-point conversion was no good. Neither the Tigers nor the Rebels could muster any offense for the remainder of the first half, which ended with the Rebels leading 14-6.

The Tigers came out with new life in the second half. They took the kickoff with Mike Sharp, senior tight end, returning 16 yards to the Rebel 49.

However, penalties forced the Tigers to punt and the Rebels took over with 8:45 remaining in the third quarter at their own 38.

Great defensive play by the Tigers forced the Rebels to punt. The Tigers took over with 4:44 remaining in the third quarter.

The Tigers then mounted an impressive drive on excellent running by Loiacano, Rogers and sophomore Brennan Compretta to move the ball to the Rebel 16-yard line to end the third quarter.

With 11:47 remaining in the game, The Rebels recovered a Tiger fumble at their own 16 to end the Tiger threat.

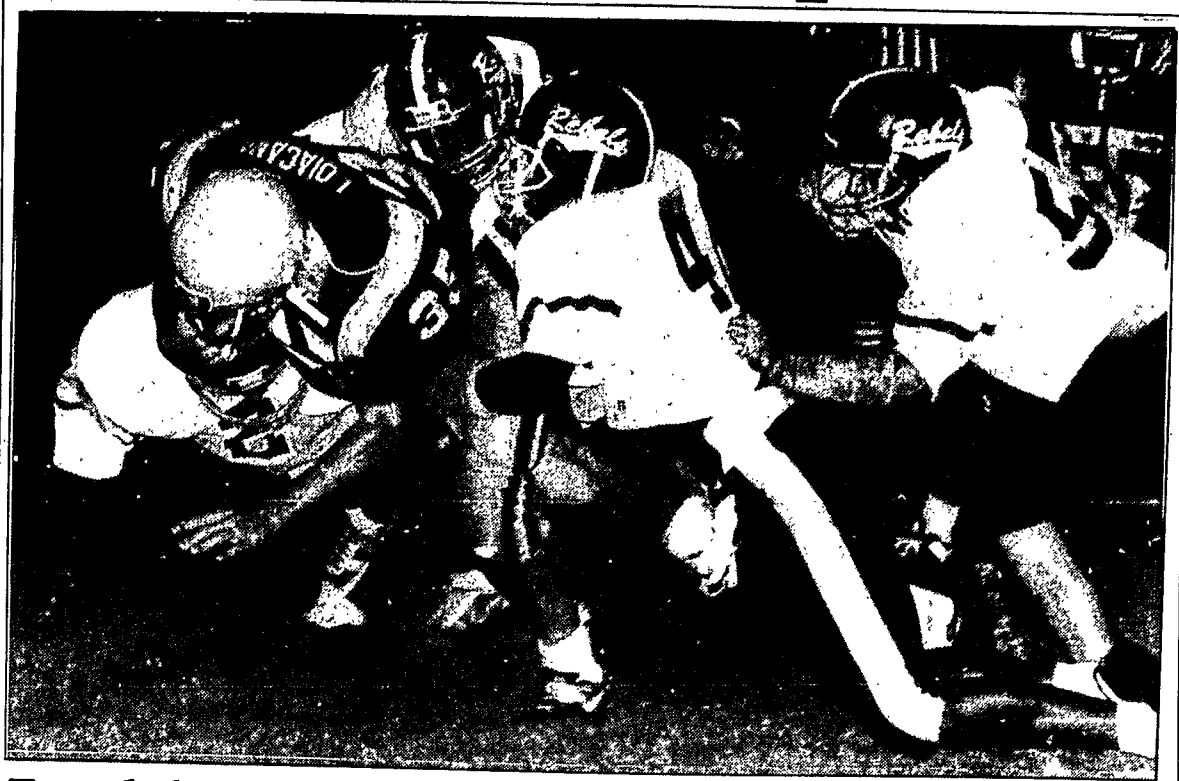

Penalties forced the Rebels to punt. With 8:13 remaining, Thomas Brink signalled for a fair catch at the Rebel 37. He was hit as he caught the ball, and the Rebels were penalized to their own 20-yard line.

On the next play from scrimmage, Mitchell passed to Brink, who caught the ball at the 2-yard line and danced into the end zone with 8:07 remaining.

Mitchell then hit Loiacano for the two-point conversion to tie the game at 14.

The next play was probably the most crucial of the game and definitely the turning point. The ever-present Abrams took the kickoff at the Rebel 20, cut to the right, avoided the clutches of two Tigers and raced 80 yards for a Rebel touchdown. With 7:54 remaining, the Rebels led 20-14.

Touchdown

Jason Loiacano, No. 35, bulls his way into the end zone, capping a 62-yard Bay High drive against the visiting Pearl River, La. Rebels in Tiger Stadium. Loiacano was also on the receiving end of a two-point conversion late in the game to tie the score at 14-14. The Rebels eventually won the game 20-14, as a late Tiger drive ended with a pass interception. (Staff photo by Randy Ponder).

Unstoppable

Ronald Abrams, No. 40, of Pearl River, La., shows the form that netted him three touchdowns against the Bay High Tigers Friday night. Abrams scored on runs of 70-yards the second play of game, 30-yards in the second quarter and an 80 yard kick return in the fourth quarter, as the Rebels edged Bay High 20-14 in the season opener. (staff photo by Randy Ponder).

The Tiger defense buckled down and held the Rebels, forcing them to punt with 2:26 remaining. However, the Tigers last drive stalled when the Rebels intercepted the ball with 1:07 remaining and ran the clock out.

Gaudin said Saturday, "We felt like we had a chance to win the game, but we didn't take advantage of it."

He commented that the large number of Rebel penalties in the early part of the game helped the Tigers' efforts. "They have a different set of rules in Louisiana, different ways you can block and so on, and the (Rebel) coaches evidently didn't prepare the players for that."

The Tigers also had many penalties, he added, but they were such things as players having mouthpieces hanging out, "typical first game stuff."

Gaudin cited blocking breakdowns and missed opportunities as reasons for the second half loss. However, he blamed himself more than anyone for the defeat.

"I told the team after the game that I felt like we lost the game as coaches more than the players did. We had other players that could have been better utilized. Instead, the players on the field ended up exhausted."

He commended the offensive and defensive play calling of coaches Joe Shaw and Walt Esslinger, and said newcomer Stace McRaney, who works primarily with the receivers and linebackers, is learning quickly.

"I feel I blew my part of it," he said. "I should have made better decisions and used my personnel better."

"Overall, I was pleased with the effort, but disappointed we didn't get the win. We have a good young team, and we're going to get better. It's just a question of time."

Next week, the Tigers travel across town to play archrival St. Stanislaus. Kickoff time is 7:30

Hancock High

Modern facility opens to county students

BY JACQUI COCHRAN

It's not complete, and may not be for quite some time, but wait till you see this place!

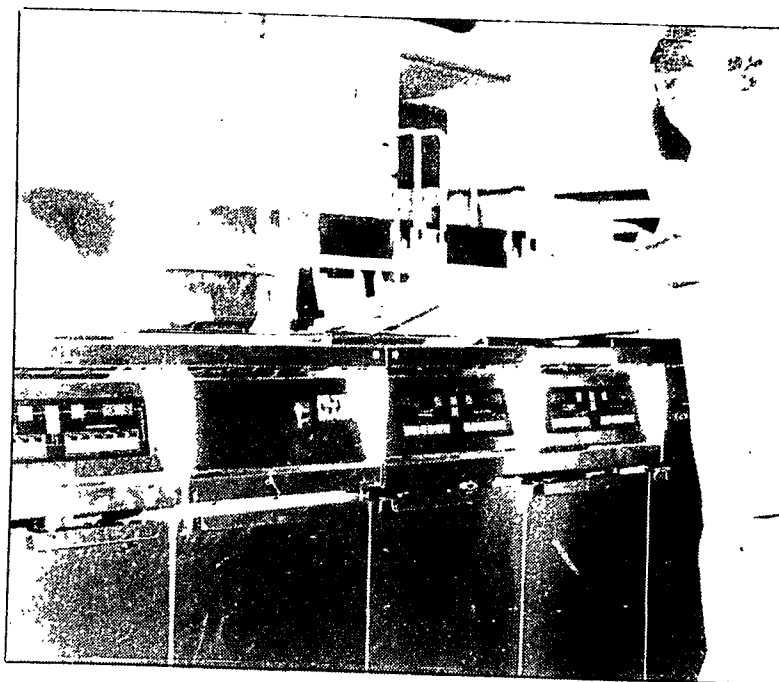

Hancock Junior-Senior High School is like the new house on the block—the family has moved in, but the furniture hasn't been arranged yet.

The Commons, a multi-purpose cafeteria, performance stage and gymnasium is yet to be completed. The tile floor remains to be laid.

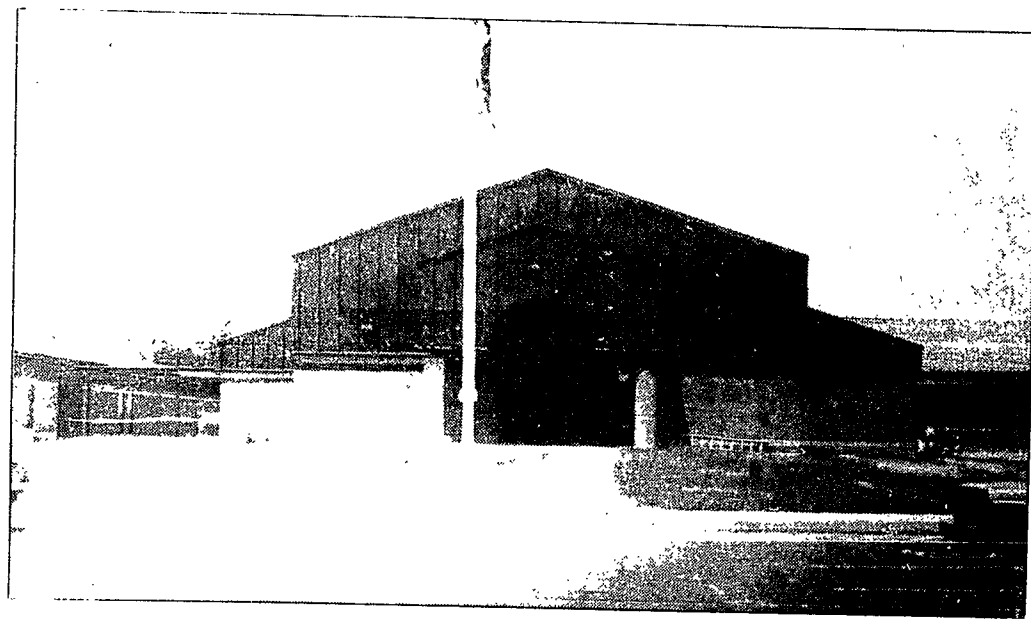

Though the stage was scattered with workers, though the gymnasium floor was stacked with boxes, it felt like walking into a cathedral. The building lifts you with its vision.

A field house with offices for eight coaches is part of the Commons complex extension surrounding the gym. Weight training, film room, showers and an entire physical education department will be housed.

Behind the Commons, the skeletal frame of the football field bleachers shone in the sun. The field had been newly laid with squares of grass destined to cushion the fall of many a foe to come.

Computerized fryers

Central offices

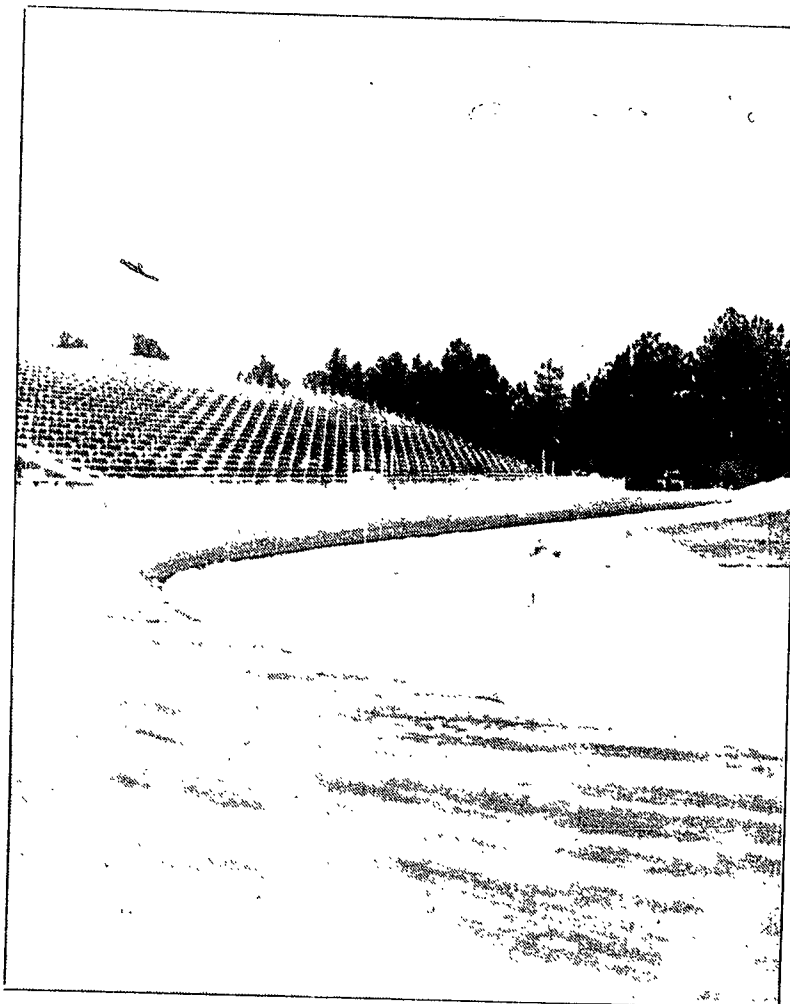

A wooded area was yet to be cleared of underbrush to be prepared for the fans who will walk through to reach the baseball diamond.

Jennifer Schwartz of Bay St. Louis and Melissa Ferriell of Kiln, both tenth graders, spoke of their preference for the new Hancock High. "It's a lot better than the other school, the first couple of days you got lost...but they offer a lot more classes than the other school."

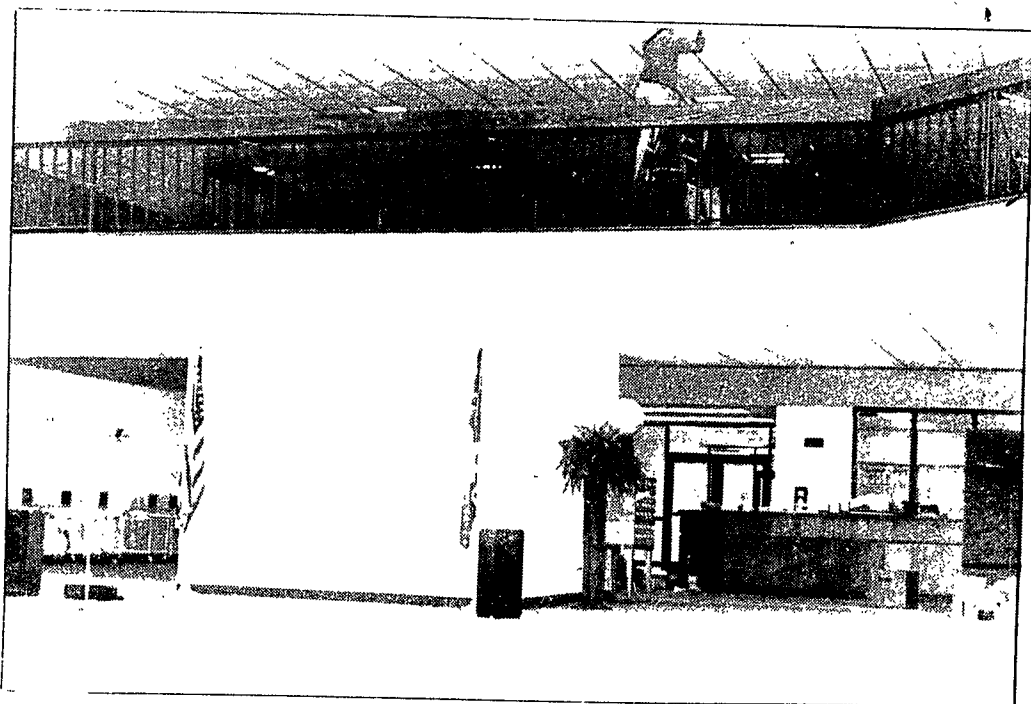

The cafeteria is a marvel of modern science. Computerized deep fryers beep a warning as they automatically lift from the grease.

The library is housed in the rear of the main center structure. It is large, bright and airy. It has an appealing loft for student assisted study which looks down onto the main arena.

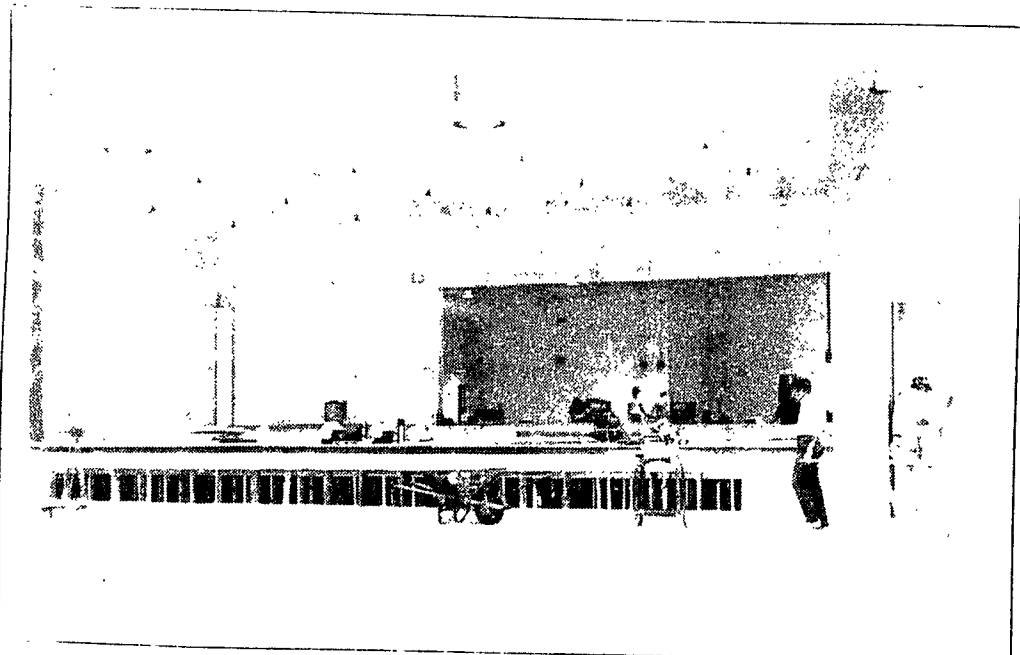

The new junior-senior high school has 1190 students this year.

Disposal made easy

The dishwasher is a grinding metal duct which consumes the students' leftovers. Trays of styrofoam and plastic utensils are used to simplify the disposal process. Outside and in the rear of the cafeteria is the mouth of the equipment, which emits tiny pieces of refuse into a dumpster container.

Meals, snacks help children concentrate

Irregular meals could spell trouble for school children under 10 years of age—the peak years of learning.

"Irregularity in meals can affect how children learn and how they behave," said Dr. Melissa Mixon, human nutrition specialist with the Mississippi Cooperative Extension Service.

"Children up to age 10 need to eat every four to six hours. Mid-morning snacks are important especially when some students may leave for school very early.

"Children who do not eat breakfast perform poorly in tasks that require concentration, and their attention span is shorter," Mixon said. "These children also score lower on IQ tests because of their inability to concentrate."

Hypoglycemia, a condition of low blood sugar often caused by not eating, will sometimes occur in school children. The condition is characterized by listlessness, confusion, fatigue and an inability to concentrate.

Mixon said hypoglycemia can be diagnosed by a physician and usually treated through an improved diet.

"Any food is better than nothing for breakfast," Mixon said. "Milk and cereal or toast with juice or milk are better than high fat and sugar foods like donuts and sweet rolls."

Snacks for mid-morning breaks could be fruit or fruit cups, raisins, cheese or peanut butter crackers, dry cereal or homemade peanut butter cookies or muffins.

"Parents and teachers can't expect children to learn when they don't have food for energy," Mixon said. "Hunger pains distract them from what the teacher is saying."

The nutritionist said whenever meat, milk, eggs or other potentially hazardous foods are in a lunch box, whether for a snack or lunch, include ice packs (blue ice) to keep the foods safe.

Mississippi keeps its cotton pickin' hands busy...

King Cotton wants his Mississippi throne back. By planting 1.3 million acres, we have moved up to third place in U.S. cotton growing. Only Texas and California grow more of the plant used to make cloth. Before the Civil War, we were in first place. The Delta cotton farms took many decades to recover from the harsh war and the boll weevil, a bad insect that eats the plant. Then people began to choose other kinds of cloth, and King Cotton was hurt again. People are changing their minds. They want cotton clothing because it is natural and cool, so that means King Cotton has a chance to rule again. For the last harvest, he produced 1.8 million cotton bales. That equals 864 million pounds, or 14 billion handkerchiefs. That's nothing to sneeze at.

SHOPPING UP A STORM

By Katy
McGuire Caire

I don't know whether peaches are beneficial to the complexion, but, if they are, I should be glowing; for I've been gorging on ripe, juice-dripping peaches to such an extent that I've been washing my face with peach juice, just about!

As summer and the peach crops wane, I'm enjoying this bounty to the fullest, in all sorts of tasty dishes, taking advantage of the good prices at our area supermarkets these days.

There's peach ice cream and peach shortcake, two of my favorite sweets. And, grilled peaches or broiled peaches pair deliciously with broiled chicken or pork dishes. And, if you've some all-but-overripe peaches on hand, cut into slices or chunks, mash well and mix with softened butter for a specially good topping for your breakfast toast or pancakes or waffles. Often, I just toast the bread, top with the soft butter, and top again with peach pieces, "smushing" them into the buttered toast.

And, this afternoon I shall quickly cook up a:

PEACH CRISP

4 to 6 sliced peaches
1/2 cup water
2/3 cup flour
2/3 cup sugar
1/2 stick butter
Dash of nutmeg, say 1/4 tsp., according to your taste

Butter a shallow baking dish, and place the peach slices in it, sprinkling them with the water and nutmeg. Blend the flour, sugar and butter until crumbly in texture, and spread over the peach mixture. Bake in a 350 degree oven for 26 to 30 minutes.

If you prefer, you might toss some of the new crop red apples into your shopping cart and make an Apple Crisp instead. Use four sliced apples, and substitute cinnamon, a half teaspoon or a bit more, for the nutmeg. I wonder how some of those nectarines would taste in a crisp?

The sweet, sweet corn of late summer is another boon to the taste buds, quickly boiled or steamed, and served dripping with melted butter (there I go again) and dusted with pepper. And, if you've some corn leftover, use it up in this brunch or suppertime or anytime dish:

CORN SCRAMBLE

2 cups cooked fresh corn cut from the cob
2 Tbsp. butter or margarine
1/4 cup chopped onion
1/4 cup chopped bell (green) pepper

Pepper, salt to your taste
1/4 tsp. dried leaf thyme
8 eggs
1/4 cup water

Melt the butter in your large skillet, add the onion and bell pepper, and saute just until tender, five minutes or so. Add the corn, pepper, salt and thyme. Meanwhile, in a medium bowl beat together the eggs and water, and add to the skillet. Cook over medium heat, stirring from time to time, until eggs are set. Serve with grilled tomatoes. (Four servings)

***

I just can't seem to leave the produce departments at our stores; with good prices on fresh mushrooms, tomatoes, potatoes, zucchini and other vegetables, let's pick a good crop and make:

JUNE CARTER CASH'S VEGETABLE 'STUFF'

(This recipe is from "Encore: Nashville" Cookbook, compiled by the Nashville Junior League in 1977, and reprinted several times to date. It's a collection of Southern cooking and a salute to Nashville as "Music City, USA!"

It's also a tribute to the country music celebrities "who have done so much to make the Nashville area such an exciting place to live," as the foreword tells us.

1/3 cup flour
2 1/2 tsp. salt
1/4 tsp. freshly ground black pepper

2 medium green tomatoes, sliced 1/4-inch thick
2 zucchini, sliced 1/4-inch thick

1/2 cup oil
1 large bell (green) pepper, sliced

1 lb. potatoes, peeled and thinly sliced

1 cup chopped onions
4 Tbsp. butter or margarine
1 lb. fresh mushrooms, sliced
1 tsp. sugar

Any woman who has moved to the Coast in the last three years is invited to join. Call Jo Stanford at 832-2211 or Catherine Rhodes at 255-3332 for more information.

Freshly grated Parmesan cheese

Mix the flour with 1 1/2 teaspoons of the salt and 1/8 teaspoon of the pepper, and use this mixture to coat the tomato and zucchini slices. Set aside. In a very large skillet, heat 1/4 cup oil, saute the bell pepper and set aside. In the same skillet saute the tomato and zucchini a few slices at a time, until nicely browned (two minutes per side), and remove.

Put 1/4 cup oil in the skillet and add the potatoes, onion, and 1/2 teaspoon of salt. Cook over medium heat, and stir until the potatoes are tender, approximately 5 minutes, remove. Again, in the same skillet, melt butter and saute the mushrooms for 5 minutes, then stir in sugar and the remaining salt and pepper.

Gently stir in the sauteed green pepper, tomatoes, zucchini, potatoes and onions, tossing gently until well mixed. Reheat and serve topped with cheese; and when I'm not in the mood for all this "put and take and cook" game, I just cook it all together from the start, and enjoy! (8 servings)

At the meat counter's, pork, spareribs, small, medium or large size, may be had at good prices. Beef briskets are in good supply as well, as are eye of the round beef roasts and sirloin tip roasts. Check this past Thursday's "Cooking Up a Storm" column for a barbecued brisket recipe, as well as a marinated steak recipe, if you wish.

And, be sure to look over the specials in the deli and bakery departments—and snap up one of those good buys on ice cream—and enjoy!

Late summer lawn fertilization debated

By Dr. Milo Burnham
Horticulturist
Mississippi Cooperative
Extension Service

Late summer and early fall fertilization of warm-season lawn grasses is a topic that can generate a fair amount of discussion among university personnel, the lawn care industry and homeowners.

There is no agreement on when the last application of fertilizer should be made and what it should consist of. This lack of agreement, while not of a major dimension, calls attention to the need for more research to help the points in question.

upon us. As a rule of thumb, no more than 1 pound of nitrogen per 1,000 square feet should be applied within 45 days of the first frost.

"The advantages of this last application are many. Most noticeable is the deeper green color that is main-

"The grass also can manufacture more carbohydrate for storage. There is often a maintain itself through the winter, the plant will not renew itself the following spring.

"Potassium acts to prevent cell disruption. For this reason, at least as much potassium should be applied in this last fertilizer application as nitrogen. Recent work at Texas A&M has shown that phosphorus may make Bermudagrass more prone to winter damage.

"The 'winterizer' type of fertilizers are manufactured to be applied at this time. Several suppliers provide 10-0-10, 5-0-15, 7-0-21 and other moderate nitrogen, low phosphorus and moderate-to-high potassium fertilizers.

"Research conducted by Dr. Mike Goatley at Mississippi State University has shown that Tifgreen Bermudagrass can benefit from applications of nitrogen as late as October. His trials were not damaged by the December freeze of 1989, and his results are causing a rethinking of fall fertilization practices."

As you can see, it's not all that cut and dried. Given the date of the first freeze it might be easier to say don't fertilize past a certain date, but all we can do is predict a time period for the first freeze based on first freezes in past year.

quicker green-up the following spring.

"There are also disadvantages to this late application. The added fertilizer applied is as available to winter weeds as it is to the desired grass. There is a great danger of losing the lawn by causing rapid growth before a rapid temperature drop.

"The grass plant responds to nitrogen by creating larger leaf cells with thinner cell walls. The plant's leaves contain more water, both within and between these larger cells. When water freezes, it expands. It is this expansion that causes the damage to the grass plant.

Free hearing test available in Bay

Bay St. Louis area residents are now able to screen their hearing over the telephone thanks to a new hearing health awareness program.

"Data A Hearing Screening (DAHST)" is a free recorded message which enables callers to check current hearing levels from the privacy of their home.

This hearing health awareness program, sponsored by Garden Park Community Hospital, Gulfport, has been developed to help the estimated one in 12 hearing impaired people monitor their hearing in the simplest and most accurate way possible.

Hearing impaired people are typically unaware of their problem or uninformed about how to seek help.

This free hearing screening test provides a way to check their hearing from the privacy of their home without the fear of solicitation.

The DAHST telephone number for Bay St. Louis and surrounding communities is 467-7611.

For other DAHST numbers in more than 200 locations across the United States and Canada, contact the National Information Center at 1-800-222-EARS from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. EST or write OHS, P.O. Box 1880, Media, PA 19063.

ENTER EACH WEEK FOR EACH WEEK'S DRAWING!

Your correct entry makes you eligible for instant prizes awarded every 15 minutes on Saturday from 9 to 11 a.m. One correct entry per store will be chosen at 11 a.m. each Saturday and entered into the national Grand Prize Sweepstakes. National sweepstakes winners will be drawn after Sept. 8, the end of the promotion. No purchase necessary. Void where prohibited. See store for contest rules and details.
